4th of July Event @ The Sands

Dear Town of Port Royal,

I was hoping to continue a personal Fourth of July tradition. On Nantucket Island I put on their Festivities for 23 years, I then wrote a Thank You letter and would send it to our local newspaper, the Inquirer and Mirror. It was a great way to get everyone recognized for all of their hard work. I did send it out locally in Beaufort but just in case they don't print it, here it is for all of you.

Thank you Van and Brooke, Jeff and the DPW Department from the Town of Port Royal for all of their hard work. The Town's Government Officials Mayor Sam Murray and Council members Jerry Ashmore, Mary Beth Heyward and Darryl Owens for patriotic an incredible start to the Event with their patriotic singing of the National Anthem. Many thanks to Port Royal Police Chief Beach, Lt. Massey, the Port Royal Police and Fire Department for all their help.

The wonderful music by the talented Main Street Band and JBH Entertainment for keeping it all plugged in. The delicious food and fun activities vendors. Gina and David with the Boy Scouts. Lee Distributors and Triangle Ice for keeping us quenched and cool. Robert from Piggly Wiggly for those absolutely AWESOME and tasty watermelons.

Thank you Beaufort Historic Partnership and Cora for the very helpful van transportation. The extra parking from Port of Port Royal was a great help too.

Huge thanks to the Volunteers and the Lowcountry Jaycees. So Hardworking and fun too. Shawn for his great design work and capturing amazing moments. He really helped me get the all important Word of Mouth out too.

I want to thank Patty and Jim Crower for introducing me to so many in Port Royal while giving a New Girl in Town great support. Anna for her great liquor form advice and the Historic Port Royal Foundation for its service in securing the permit. My patient husband Gary and wonderful, volunteer neighbors Ray, Diane and Janet. Please forgive me if I somehow forgot to mention your name too. Everyone was incredible.

To end this simply, I just hope that you all had as much Fun going to this Celebration as I had putting it on.

Thank you Port Royal.

My best,

Kate Hamilton Pardee
