CRIME & PUBLIC SAFETY

Man rescued from capsized boat off Sands Beach in Port Royal during severe storm

Volunteers Needed

Hello Port Royal! My name is Kate Hamilton Pardee and I have recently relocated to South Carolina from New England where I previously worked in tourism and public relations. I am currently assisting Van Willis and the Town of Port Royal in their Fourth of July celebration... AND I NEED YOUR HELP TOO; SPECIFICALLY VOLUNTEERS! We have a full roster of exciting plans so please contact me at capecodh2o@comcast.net and let me know if you can help us! Not to worry, as Moose my patriotic Border Collie (pictured with me above) will be safe at home during the celebration! Although cute, our furry friends are not invited to the fireworks - they don't really like them anyway!

Bring your entire family out for some exciting and safe fun at the Port Royal Beach and of course kids are FREE! We will have music, food, real scuba divers go take pictures with, and sharks teeth of all species and sizes hidden in the water and sand waiting to be found so don't miss out and purchase your tickets now!

Purchasing Tickets:

Anyone above the age of 14 would require a ticket and anyone under the age of 13 has free admission! We recommend two children per parent, but encourage the entire family to come out!

When checking out we have the 14+ admission and then we ask that you add how many kids you are bringing with the 13 and under admission that is marked as free so we can calculate how much Teeth we need to put out there the day of the event! All children must be attended by a parent.

Admission Day Of:

We will have an admissions table that when you arrive you can either show your purchased ticket on your phone or the printed version. Our volunteers will be checking you in through our system so if you don't want to bring your phone on the beach they can look you up by name or email. 14+ will have a certain colored wrist band and the free 13 and under will have a different color that way we know you are allowed in the event!
